

Twinning with Box official

Sunday 24 March 2017, beautiful festivities in the town centre to formalize the twinning of the commune with Box in England.

The group arrived from the other side of the Channel last Friday. It was received by their Sorigny counterparts led by President Céline Lhuissier Tudoce for a tour of the region and a surprise for the English who did not know the Touraine, they were delighted by the beauty of Tours.

French-English Friendship

Sunday act of twinning was made official after the first signing in Box a few months ago. The numerous public were entitled to the signature in Mayor of the official acts in the presence of the personalities: Fred Sheppard, president of the twinning in Box; Michael Williams, the Chairman; Stewart Barnes, Mayor of Box; His Sorigny counterpart Alain Esnault; Céline Lhuissier Tudoce, president of Sorigny Twinning Committee assisted by Christine Colin Desbourdes who initiated this twinning and Jacqueline Métivier who officiated as master of ceremonies.

Departmental Councilor Sylvie Giner distinguished herself by her impeccable English accent during speeches.

Several founding acts followed, the national hymns sung in common, the raising of colors followed by a much appreciated aperitif.

To mark the event of this signature, the presence of the presidents of twinning towns of the valley of Indre. The children of the elementary school have not been forgotten.

The Box authorities visited them and chatted in the language of Shakespeare, a good bath of language for all alive. Finally, a gala dinner concluded well this Sunday in the domain of Thais sealing the friendship of two communes.